

We are monitoring the ongoing developments surrounding coronavirus (COVID-19) and have taken precautionary measures to prevent the spread of the virus, while continuing to serve our customers responsibly.

Our people, products, and services are actively supporting essential businesses, first responders, government agencies, and disaster recovery companies.

We expect our branches to remain operational and we have taken precautionary actions to ensure the safety and well-being of our team members as they act quickly and safely to support our customers and communities we serve.

Over the past couple weeks we have taken proactive precautionary measures to protect our team members, our customers, and our communities from exposures to COVID-19; some examples:

- Implemented employee, equipment, and facility cleaning guidelines
- Educated our team members to practice social distancing at our stores and in the field
- Paused grouped trainings
- Paused business travel and meetings
- Limited inter branch travel - Keeping locations separated.
- Paused meetings with vendors

Beginning March 23rd we are adding these measures:

- We will support our customers by phone, text, or email. At this time we will meet customers individually by appointment if needed at our locations using social distancing guidelines.
- Moving all contracts to verbal or electronic.

I am confident in our ability to meet our customers demands and do not anticipate any issues supplying products and services to their facilities and job sites. We are doing all the above with our best intentions. We care about the safety of our employees, families, customers, and communities. We are still in business - just changing the way we do business.
